Veneration of the Holy Cross

On this Third Sunday of Lent, we celebrate the Veneration of the Precious and Life-giving Cross. May we learn to use the symbol of the Cross not as a decoration around our necks or a decorative display, but to realize that the Cross is a symbol of life to Christians. The Cross, above all, is a symbol of hope, freedom and love and the promise of eternal salvation for those who accept, believe and follow Jesus Christ. May the Cross of Jesus be a blessing in our lives in anticipation of our Lord's unconditional care, and love, and in preparation for our life in eternity.
