For Our Edification

Today is AHEPA Sunday

Welcome, members of Hellas Chapter #102, Daughters of Penelope, and the whole AHEPA family. AHEPA was founded in 1927 and for over 80 years has served in many local and national projects. The Lowell Chapter awards scholarships and has recognized community leaders, as well as supported Philoxenia House in Boston and St. Basil's Academy in New York. The AHEPA family has a long history of promoting Hellenism, education, philanthropy, civic responsibility, and family and individual excellence. Thank you for joining us this morning and your sponsorship of today's Coffee Hour.

Golf Family Outing Next Sunday

All are welcome to participate in the 4th Annual Max's Golf Family Outing next Sunday, May 22, at 3:00 pm in Tyngsboro at 383 Middlesex Rd. Family fun includes miniature golf, driving range, batting cages, bumper boats, and ice cream. Contact Jennifer Hardy at (978) 551-6306 with any questions.

The Holy Myrrh-Bearers – A Lesson in Loyalty

It was with heavy hearts that a faithful group of women arose before dawn to properly prepare the body of Christ for burial. It was the third day since the crucifixion. When they arrived at the tomb, they discovered it was empty! For their faithful service, the Myrrh-Bearing Women received the greatest possible reward: they were the first to witness the Resurrection. How they must have rejoiced as they heard the words of the angel: "You seek Jesus of Nazareth, Who was crucified. He is risen."
