For Our Edification

Today is AHEPA Sunday

Welcome, members of Hellas Chapter #102, Daughters of Penelope, and the whole AHEPA family. AHEPA in Lowell was founded in 1927 and for 90 years has served in many local and national projects. The Lowell Chapter awards scholarships and has recognized community leaders, as well as supported Philoxenia House in Boston and St. Basil's Academy in New York. The AHEPA family has a long history of promoting Hellenism, education, philanthropy, civic responsibility, and family and individual excellence.

Memorial Day Services

Memorial Day Services will take place next Sunday, May 28, at 12:30 pm at Westlawn Cemetery. Fr. Nick will be at Westlawn Cemetery on Monday, May 29, at 9:00 am to make graveside visits.

Memorial donation envelopes have been provided by the Eastern Orthodox Council of Churches and are available at the Pagari.

Greek American Veterans will gather at their quarters on Worthen St. next Sunday at 1:00 pm to march to the Greek Immigrant Monument for a wreath laying and they will proceed up Dummer St. to conduct a ceremony at the Greek American Legion Monument. A buffet will be served at the headquarters located at 228 Worthen St. following the ceremonies.
