Holy Prophet Elias – July 20

Elias (Elijah) was a hero of faithfulness to God in Israel and a courageous prophet. Achab, seventh King of Israel (875-854 BC), influenced by his pagan wife

Isabella, had forgotten the true God and returned to paganism. Elias approached him for his idolatry and killed the priests of Baal. He fled to the mountains because of Isabella's anger. God appeared to him there, and a crow brought him bread for food. At the time of Josaphat, King of Israel (874-850 BC), Elias was taken up in a chariot of fire in the presence of his disciple Eliseus. The prophet Malachias had said: "Behold I will send you Elias the Prophet, before the coming and dreadful day of the Lord. And he shall turn the hearts of the fathers to their children, and the heart of the children to their fathers" (Mal.4:5). The prophet refers to the second coming of the Lord, at the end of the world.

Feast of St. Mary Magdalene – July 22

Mary, born in the village of Magdala on the shore of the Sea of Galilee, is the foremost model of love and repentance. She may have been the stricken woman from whom Jesus chased seven demons (Luke 8:2). She followed Jesus to the foot of the cross, brought spices to anoint His body, and was the first to witness and announce His Resurrection. She is considered to be Equal to the Apostles.

GOSPEL READING – Matthew 5:14-19

You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven. Do not think that I came to destroy the Law or the Prophets; I did not come to destroy but to fulfill. For assuredly, I say to you, till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle will by no means pass from the law till all is fulfilled. Whoever therefore breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does and teaches them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.
