St. Barbara – December 4

St. Barbara was born in the early third century. A saint in the highest tradition of purity and piety, Barbara is listed in some Church branches as one of the 14 Auxiliary Saints who are sometimes referred to as Holy Helpers, but she held so much hope for so many of the faithful in all walks of life that she was adopted by various segments of society as their special patroness. Officially, she is recognized as the patroness of artillerymen and firemen and just about everyone engaged in hazardous occupations. She is regarded by some as the safeguard against sudden death. The purity of St. Barbara is such that her name can be invoked on any occasion with the assurance that her virtue is an answer to evil in any form.

St. Nicholas – December 6

There are many myths and legends about St. Nicholas, who is arguably the most popular saint in our Holy Orthodox Church. We know that he was the Archbishop of Myra in the early 4th century. His generosity has been well documented. He is the patron saint of children, sailors, and pawnbrokers.

In the Troparion for his Feast, he is called a Model of Faith, an Example of Virtue, and is praised for the Sincerity of his Deeds.
