St. Kyriaki – July 7

St. Kyriaki was born of very devout Christian parents on a Sunday, which is why she was named Kyriaki. She followed her parents' example by becoming a devoted Christian. She was imprisoned for being a follower of Christ and was severely beaten but she held firm in her commitment to Jesus Christ. She died at the age of twenty-one.

INSPIRATION

If God brings you to it, He will bring you through it:

Happy moments, praise God.

Difficult moments, seek God.

Quiet moments, worship God.

Painful moments, trust God.

Every moment, thank God.

God abandons no one.

For Him all are children.

None are stepchildren.

Saint Theophan the Recluse
